

The following pages explain the TWWS Members Pages and how to access them.

The TWWS Members Pages are an interactive service for all members of the Society and allow you to receive information and provide contributions to the Society.

The Main Features of the Current Members Pages are:

- Easy Contact by the Committee to all members
- Notifications of upcoming events etc
- The Society Meeting dates, cancellations etc
- You can post games that you are planning to organise at a meeting.
- Members can then let you know that they wish to join the game.
- Items you may have for sale
- Reviews of Games/Books etc
- Society Memories(History)
- Painting Competition Results

Other features will be added.

The Personal details held by the system are minimal and are only shown to Committee members .

Other Society Members can see your details if you give them permission , this can be changed at anytime once you have logged into the members only pages.

REGISTERING for ACCESS

You are registering for access to the Tunbridge Wells Wargames Society Interactive Service

Please NOTE:- that by clicking the 'Register Me' button you accept our 'Agreement' below, this will be recorded against your account to comply with the 'General Data Protection Regulation 2018'

Please enter your details below, pink * fields are mandatory.

Your Agreement

As part of signing up to the Tunbridge Wells Wargames Society interactive service you agree that your contact details can be passed to the Society Administrators to enable them to contact you.

Only one person at a time can use the registration form.
Couples will need to complete separate registration forms individually.
You can register multiple people with the same email address but each will be issued with and need to use different passwords to access the system.

Once you have confirmed your intention to proceed, a unique link will be sent to you in an email immediately after you submit your registration, and on clicking this link your details will be forwarded to the Society Administrators for approval. Once your account has been approved and any required payment provided, you will be given full Membership access to the system.

Further, to avoid any misuse of the registration process, the IP address of the computer you are currently using will be logged into our system. This procedure safeguards you and us against any unintentional correspondence between parties not agreeing to this process.

As our part of the agreement we will not divulge any of your personal details except as follows:-
a) Your personal details will be accessible by the Society Committee.
b) With your permission you can allow others in the Society to see your contact details.
c) If any legal requirement to divulge your details has been requested by permitted Officers of the Law.
You can at any time delete all your personal identifying data from the system by logging into the system clicking on 'My Details' then pressing the 'I wish to Resign from the Society' button.
